Where You Belong

Congregation Brethren of Israel Founded 1848 - Bulletin Volume 166, No. 3 November 2018

WE'RE ALMOST THERE!

The Vassar Temple Gala
November 4, 2018, 5:00pm

Hopefully you have by now purchased your tickets to the November 4th Temple Gala at the Poughkeepsie Tennis Club. This very special evening includes:

Hors d'oeuvres and sparkling wine
Silent Auction
Buffet Dinner with wine
Presentation to Honorees
Dancing

The evening begins at 5:00pm with sparkling wine and hors d'oeuvres and time for socializing and bidding at the silent auction. Guests will then be invited to take their seats in the dining room (with a glass of sparkly and some yummys) for the presentation of this year's honorees.

The theme for this year's Gala is Social Action and is based on Tikkun Olam, a concept of kindness performed to perfect or repair the world. This Jewish value is often used when discussing issues of social policy affecting those who may be at a disadvantage.

We will honor various Vassar Temple committees and projects devoted to social action. We are also honoring two congregants who are involved in endeavors outside of the Temple organization.

Andrea Ciminello (with the Vassar Temple Refugee Leadership Team) has been a committed volunteer with the Mid-Hudson Refugee Solidarity Alliance, and Ron Rosen, who has been a champion of conservation and the environment, especially through his roles with the Appalachian Trail Conservancy.

Following the honoree ceremony, there will be a delicious buffet dinner with wine and then an hour of dancing and the opportunity for silent auction bidding.

The Gala is an important event for Vassar Temple. It is the Temple's largest fundraiser, representing a considerable portion of our budget, a very special social and ceremonial event at which we acknowledge the efforts of the congregation to improve our community. And it will be a fun time!

If you have already bought your tickets, I look forward to seeing you on November 4th. If you have not yet purchased your tickets, it's not too late! Call the Temple office at (845) 454-2570. Or if you have questions about the Gala, contact me at arnieser@aol.com or (845) 473 8426.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The great rabbinic sage Hillel taught “Do not separate yourself from the community” (Pirkei Avot 2:5).

During this month, we, as the Vassar Temple community, have at least two meaningful opportunities to fulfill this essential Jewish obligation.

On November 4th, thanks to the very hard work of a team led by Arnie Serotsky, we will celebrate Vassar Temple at its annual gala. Our theme this year is one that is central to the mission of Vassar Temple: tikkun olam, the Jewish mandate to participate in acts of social justice to help repair our broken world. Whether it is the annual donation of school supplies for the Morse school, numerous programs to feed the hungry in our community and beyond such as the Yom Kippur Food drive, the Crop Walk, LunchBox and Trim a Thanksgiving, or Mitzvah Day, social justice is at the heart of Vassar Temple.

This year we have selected two honorees, Andi Ciminello and Ron Rosen, for their outstanding commitment to tikkun olam within our congregation as well as in the larger Mid-Hudson Valley: Andi, for her efforts to care for the stranger through the Mid-Hudson Refugee Solidarity Alliance and Ron for his devotion to protecting our environment, especially through his leadership roles in the Appalachian Trail Conservancy. We look forward to strong attendance both to celebrate the work of our honorees and to support Vassar Temple. If you are unable to be present physically at the gala, you can certainly make your presence known through various ways to contribute. Your on-going financial support enables Vassar Temple to play a leading role in the community in our efforts for tikkun olam, and, of course to fulfill our three-fold mission as a synagogue to be a Beit Tefillah (House of Prayer), a Beit Midrash (House of Study) and Beit K'nesset (a House of Community).

The month of November is also the time when we can fulfill our communal responsibility as American citizens by exercising our right and privilege to vote. This, too, is an act of tikkun olam for voting is one of our most powerful means of making our voices heard. This is a significant voting year in the Mid-Hudson Valley on local, state and national levels. While Jews can proudly claim a very strong voting record (studies show Jewish voter turnout averages around 85% in contrast to just 50% for the country overall), turnout is generally much lower in non-presidential years. Please be sure to include voting in your schedule for Tuesday, Nov. 6th. If you need a ride, please call Marge Groten at 845-380-7074 or Arthur Groten at 845-380-1374.

If you have a young person in your family who is eligible to vote, please encourage them to do so. According to estimates, only 50% of registered young voters actually voted in the 2016 presidential election. It's never too soon for our young people to take on their civic responsibilities...“Do not separate yourself from the community!”

In another teaching in Pirkei Avot, Rabbi Chaninah taught “pray for the welfare of the government.” (Pirkei Avot 3:2). Thus, a prayer for the government has become a regular part of Shabbat and Holy Day morning worship. As we approach Election Day, I close with some the words of the prayer for our country in Mishkan T'filah:

O Guardian of life and liberty, may our nation always merit Your protection ...
Grant our leaders wisdom and forbearance.
May they govern with justice and compassion ...
May our homes be safe from affliction and strife,
and our country be sound in body and spirit.

Amen.

Rabbi Renni S. Altman

President's Message

With the crisp air with us until next Spring and the Sukkah taken down by the Men's Club, it signals to me that Thanksgiving is just around the corner. I always enjoyed the parallels that exist between Sukkot and Thanksgiving. The idea of a bountiful harvest before the winter and the expressions of the lulav and etrog remind us that we are thankful with our whole being. Sukkot zman simchateinu...“the Season of our Rejoicing” when we pause to enjoy our bounty, as well as allowing us to reflect on our vulnerabilities while in the shelter of God.

Similarly, Thanksgiving, when we get together with friends and family, we rediscover what is truly important; love of what's real...family, friends and one's health. I love Thanksgiving on many levels, because my family makes its journey to my sister Nadine's house. My sister being in an interfaith marriage, I truly appreciate Thanksgiving because it is the one holiday that brings us all together around one table for one purpose. To give thanks for what we have, to enjoy each other's company, we recognize the many commonalities that we share.

I am also thankful for my extended family at Vassar Temple, and I appreciate each of you. Perhaps around your Thanksgiving table this year, you can not only give thanks for what you have, also consider supporting those in need. During Sukkot God commands us to rejoice, and one of the most important mitzvot that we can take part in is also to take care of others in need.

Right before Thanksgiving we will have our Gala. We will celebrate those champions of Social Action and Vassar Temple's commitment to supporting social action for years to come. Supporting the Gala financially provides us with an opportunity to strengthen our Temple. I am thankful for to all of you for your continued support. Please join me on November 4th to celebrate the accomplishments of Andrea H. Ciminello and the Vassar Temple Refugee Leadership Team and Ronald Rosen for his participation in a number of Vassar Temple Social Action projects, committees, and support of conservation and environmental projects.

See you at the Gala and have a wonderful Thanksgiving!

Alan Kaflowitz

Organ Donor Sabbath: Nov. 9th

Organ Donor Sabbath is a time for our congregation to learn about Jewish views on organ donation, celebrate life, and pray for those affected by the health crisis created by the shortage of organ donors. Our special guest speaker will be Susan Senk, who successfully received a heart transplant over 10 years ago. Susan, who is related to our rabbi, will share with us her personal story as well as the facts of organ donation and what we can do to help. Be sure you are here at 7:30pm for this special shabbat.

New Paths Services

Join us at New Paths sabbath morning services Saturdays, Nov. 3rd & Nov. 17th at 10:00am in the informal setting of Vassar Temple's East Chapel. The moving liturgy of the New Paths prayer book includes both traditional and contemporary writings, mostly in English, and participants may bring supplemental materials to share. We take the time to let the service get through us, rather than getting through the service. Each New Paths service, whether lay led or rabbi led, provides a unique and thoughtful shabbat morning experience. A brief mini-kiddush follows. For more information, please contact Marian Schwartz mschwa9882@aol.com, Rabbi Altman [rabbi@vassar temple.org](mailto:rabbi@vassar temple.org), or the Temple office 845-454-2570.

Men's Club News

We will have our Annual Men's Club Shabbat on November 16th, when members of the Men's Club will participate in the service. If you are interested in participating, please contact Glenn Tanzman at gtr714@yahoo.com. Readings are in English or Hebrew. We would love to include as many men as possible in this service. Thank you to Sisterhood who will be providing the Oneg after the service.

Many thanks, too, to the crew who helped put up the Sukkah: Dan Teich, Marty Teich, Ron Rosen, Dave Lampell, Jonah Ritter, Chuck Stein, Glenn Tanzman, and Bob Abrams

It's that time of year to renew your Men's Club dues which are $36 for the year. Please make your check out to 'Vassar Temple Men's Club.' Your dues support our activities throughout the year including the Purim Pasta Dinner and the Sisterhood Shabbat.

Shabbat Happy Hour Nov. 9th at 6:00pm

Please join us for Happy Hour in the Temple Social Hall on Friday, November 9th at 6:00pm, hosted by Jas Russo and Melissa Wall. With the weather turning cold, our Happy Hour events move from the Patio to the Social Hall. We'll enjoy food, wine and good company before services. Non-alcoholic beverages will also be available. Guests are always invited and welcome!

Happy Hours are generously sponsored by Sisterhood; we suggest a $10 per person donation to help defray expenses.

If you've been attending Happy Hours and enjoy these events, please consider hosting one! It's easy and fun to host a Happy Hour get-together. We have setup and kitchen support as well as easy-to-follow directions. Contact Elena Collins at bellavioli@gmail.com if you would like to host an upcoming Happy Hour. ## DID YOU KNOW...?

Gift cards purchased through our SCRIP program help the Temple and you at the same time...your participation generates funds needed by the Temple and provides the shopping convenience that you deserve!

Don't use SCRIP yet? Never have? This is a great time to start!

Do you shop at Adams Fairacre Farms? If you answered 'yes,' pick up your Adams card first. Every $100 spent earns $10 for the Temple and costs you nothing extra. You don't need to carry cash, fill out a check or use credit. It is so easy. SCRIP last year earned $11,000.00 for the Temple and it was because of people just like you.

Also, the holidays are fast approaching with gift giving made easy if you get gift cards from the Temple; they are available for hundreds of nation-wide retailers too. By the way, gift cards purchased through VT SCRIP can be used in-store and on-line!

Need to know more? Contact the SCRIP Coordinator, Sandra Mamis at [scrip@vassar temple.org](mailto:scrip@vassar temple.org) or 914-456-3524 or by speaking with our Temple office staff.

Non-temple members can buy SCRIP gift cards from us as well, so spread the word!

Selamu Gendron's Mitzvah Project

Selamu loves to play sports, especially soccer, and currently plays on Todd Middle School's modified soccer team and in the Town of Poughkeepsie Soccer Club. For his Bar Mitzvah project, Selamu collected new and gently-used soccer cleats, uniforms, and gear for donation to kids in impoverished communities through a charitable organization called Samba 360. Their mission is to provide kids with a healthy activity, a positive peer group, and the feelings of accomplishment that offer a sense of hope. Selamu began by presenting the idea to the Board of the Town of Poughkeepsie Soccer Club for their approval and support. This past spring, he and his friend and teammate, Barak Tucker, collected and sorted well over 400 items, and they are now being distributed to youth in Haiti, Brazil, Columbia and Panama!

High Holiday Thanks

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service: Nov. 18th

The annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will be held this year on Sunday, November 18th at Temple Beth-El (118 S. Grand Avenue, Poughkeepsie) at 4:00pm. Our theme, "Welcome and Inclusion," will be expressed in a variety of ways by the faith communities participating. Fellowship and refreshments will follow the service. Come and make this an annual tradition! (Sponsored by the Dutchess County Interfaith Council)

LunchBox: Nov. 4th

LunchBox on Sunday, Nov. 4th will be a joint effort between the men of Vassar Temple and the men of the Masjid al Noor in Wappingers Falls. To find out how you can help, contact Paul Ciminello at pciminello@wcdgroup.com.

Religious School News

The religious school year got off to a very energetic start with our opening pancake breakfast followed by two weeks of holiday celebrations: on Sunday, Sept. 23rd we made decorations and hung them in the Sukkah and then made edible Sukkot to enjoy; on Sunday, Sept. 30th the children had a close up and personal look at the Torah scrolls and then made edible ones (out of fruit roll ups and pretzel rods!) and everyone got to put their Hebrew name in theirs. We all have a place in Torah! If you notice an edible theme, that comes from the creativity of our madrachim who bring much enthusiasm and creativity to our school.

In October, a month without holidays, our teachers were able to delve deeply into their curricula. This month, we anticipate focusing on gratitude as we look ahead towards Thanksgiving and the annual "Trim a Thanksgiving" mitzvah project of helping less fortunate families celebrate this holiday. We hope parents will join us on Nov. 18th to participate in this mitzvah project. More information to come!

Summer Tzedakah School Supply Fundraiser Success

Due to the overwhelming support of our congregation, we were able to raise enough funds to help hundreds of local elementary school children get off to a good start this school year by providing basic school supplies and backpacks that their families could otherwise not afford.

Please be assured that we hit every sale and made the most of your donated dollars. We were also able to help the art education teacher at Morse School, as well as the Teen Closets at Poughkeepsie Middle School and Poughkeepsie High School. The Teen Closets provide basic hygiene items that all teens need but many in those schools may not be able to afford, and this also helps increase self-esteem and promote school attendance.

THANK YOU VASSAR TEMPLE!

HEROES AMONG US: Where She Belongs

Sometimes the most inspiring heroes are in our midst and we don't even know it – or them. As I was looking for the subject of this month's article, the answer walked through my front door. Indeed, this afternoon, Temple member, Gail D'Alessio, whom I must admit I had not yet had a chance to get to know, stopped by to borrow some of my folding chairs. After talking to her for just a few minutes, I knew I had found my subject!

Gail is one of the newer additions to our congregation, though she has known many members for years. Growing up in a non-religious Italian family in a Jewish Bronx neighborhood, Gail always identified with the Jews around her. She warmly recounts Friday afternoons when she would stand on the corner with friends waiting for the neighborhood Rabbi to pass by en route to synagogue so that they could say, "Good Shabbos!" Not long after Rabbi Berkowitz arrived at Vassar Temple, Gail decided to convert to Judaism. She joined the Temple in 2016, completed her conversion the following year, and since that time has become a regular participant in Torah Study, joined the Ritual Committee, organized the 2018 Shabbaton for Anita Diamant, served on the Search Committee that hired Rabbi Altman, became a 5th grade teacher in our Religious School, and agreed to organize the upcoming "Golden Gelt Raffle." Oh, and those folding chairs I mentioned above? Gail borrowed them for the gathering she hosted for Rabbi Altman in October. . . .of course!! She is absolutely a hero among us!

Gail, WELCOME to Vassar Temple -- we are delighted to have you in our community. As our tagline says, you are "Where you Belong!"
